NEW YORK:

NATIONAL TEMPERANCE SOCIETY AND PUBLICATION HOUSE,

J. N. STEARNS, Publishing Agent,

No. 58 READE STREET.

PREFACE.

The National Temperance Society and Publication House, which was established in 1866 for the special work of preparing and circulating a sound literature upon every phase of the temperance question, has already stereotyped and published over two hundred different books and pamphlets, and attempted in some measure to supply pure and elevating music to meet the demand in this direction of Temperance work.

The Temperance Chimes was issued four years ago, sixty thousand copies of which have already been published, and the book is still in demand.

The Temperance Hymn Book is a valuable "pocket companion" adapted to Temperance Prayer meetings, public demonstrations &c., issued two years ago, and also has a steady and increasing sale.

In preparing "Bugle Notes," the aim has been to meet the urgent and repeated demands for a higher class of music than has heretofore been published, and no pains or expense have been spared to meet the expectations of our friends and fellow-workers in the present advanced state of the Temperance Reformation. Most of the words and music have been written for this work, and among the writers of the poetry will be found such names as Geo. S. Burleigh, Ella Wheeler, Edward Carswell, Geo. W. Bungay, W. H. Burleigh, Rev. Geo. L. Taylor, W. W. Downs, W. Bennett and others.

Special effort has been made to procure "Temperance Battle Hymns," "Rallying Songs," "Cold Water Glees" and other stirring songs, so that these Bugle Notes will be made to "Sound the Battle-Cry" in earnest.

The Odes of the Good Templars and Sons of Temperance are given in full, and it is hoped that these Orders will aid in the circulation of the book.

Entered according to Act of Congress A. D. 1871, by J. N. STEARNS, in the office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington.

BUGLE NOTES.

THE RALLY.

Steadily, with great vigor.

WM. F. SHERWIN

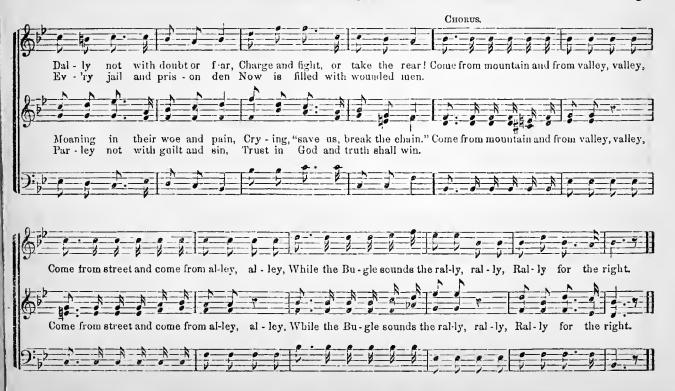

1. Come, freemen rally once again; Come, rally in your might From mountain side, and hill, and plain, To strike for Truth and Right!

1. Come, freemen rally once again; Come, rally in your might From mountain side, and hill, and plain, To strike for Truth and Right!

- 2 Fling out the gallant flag once more, And nail it to the mast—
 - A beacon-light from shore to shore, To glance upon the blast.

- 3 From north to south the anthem swells, From east to western wave;
 - A better day for man it tells— The Drunkard we will save!

WE ARE STRONG.

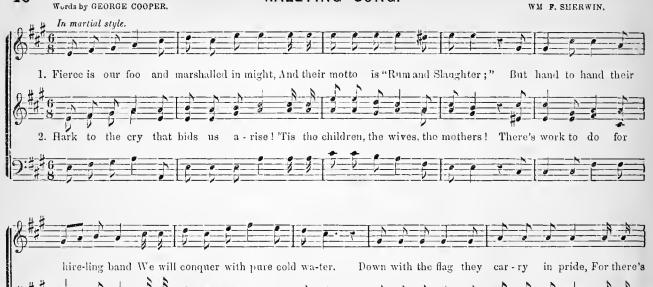

May be used as a Quartet and Chorus.

Words by ELLA WHEELER. WM F. SHERWIN. Bold. 1. We are strong, we are strong, Tho' the contest be long. We shall wave high our banner triumph-ant at last. And the 2. THE WATER DRINKER. Concluded.

1. Hark! what cry arrests mine ear? Hark! what accents of despair! Tis the drunkard's earnest pray'r, "Friends of Jesus hear."

2. Hast - en, Christians, haste to save Brothers from the drunkards grave; Diffi-cul-ties bold-ly brave; Hark! for help they call.

3. Go then in the Saviour's name, Pluck these brands from endless flame, Deck His royal dia-dem, With their ransomed souls.

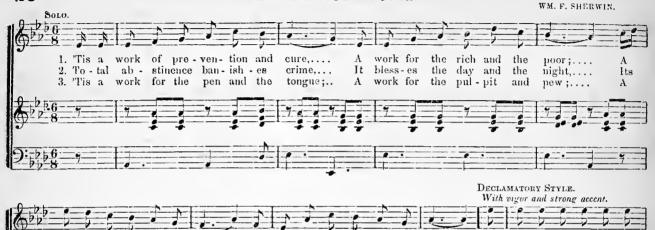

"God - ly men, to you we cry; Rests on you our anxious eye; Help us, Christians, or we die, Die in dark despair."

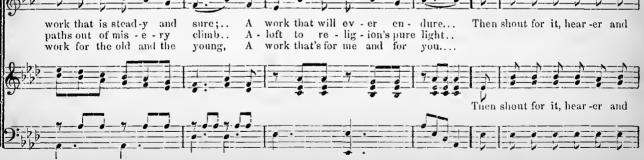

Haste then, to the rescue haste! See the souls by drink laid waste; See the work of God defaced, In Satan's deadly thrall.

Work, oh! work while yet 'tis day; Lin-ger not, make no de-lay, God will speed you on your way To rescue cap-tive souls.

 When the burning sun is high;
 When the rocks and the woods their shadows fling
 Where the pearls and the pebbles lie.

FOR THE THOUSANDS, LORD, THAT SUFFER.

For the thousands, Lord, that suffer, |On the dark abodes of sorrow We would labor every day;

Be thou still our sure defender And direct us in the way

Of thy goodness: Help us now we humbly pray.

Bid the light of temp'rance shine; Lead, O lead the fallen drunkard In the way of truth divine;

And his children, Make them now and ever thine. From the homes of rich and mighty. And the dwellings of the poor,

Till strong drink shall be no more; Far removing

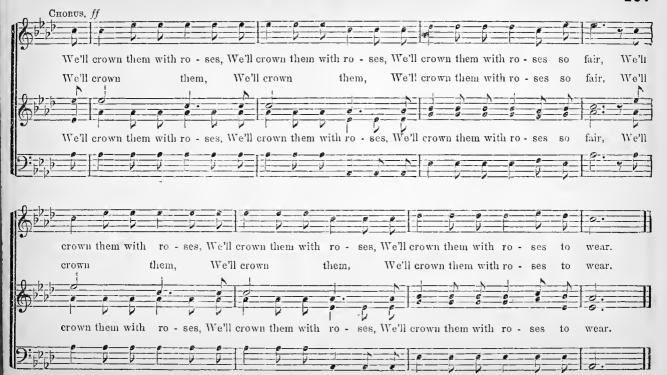

Galling bondage from the shore.

Thousands in thy courts assembled Then shall give thee nobler praise; Friends of truth and temp'rance gather, Augels in the realms of glory

Shall their lofty anthems raise For the Drunkard Living in thy holy ways.

Words by EDWARD CARSWELL. (To be sung in character.)

A FALSE FRIEND.

- 2 I fought for him, I bled for him As through the street I'd rave, And when thro' him I lost my hat, This is the hat he gave.
 - This is the hat he gave.

 My boots were of the neatest fit,
 As fine as boots could be;

 For him I gave away my boots

 And then he booted me.
- 3 My eyes were of the deepest blue, Nor lustre did they lack; But now you see they hoth are red, And one is also black.
 - My nose was never heantiful, But still was not amiss; Old Alcohol he touched it np,
 - And what d'ye think of this?
- 4 He promised I should courage have
 For all the ills of life;
 - The hravest thing he made me do
 Was -beat my little wife.
 He promised he would give me wit
 And I should ne'er he sad,
 - Instead of which he took away What little sense I had.
- 5 The health and wealth he promised me. He never, never gave :
 - But when he'd taken all I had.
 I found myself a slave.
 - So now I'll fight for him no more For woe is all his pay;
 - He's cheated me and lied to me I'll join the "Sons" to-day.

GOD SPEED THE RIGHT. Part Song.

- 1 Now to heav'n our pray'r ascending, God speed the right!
 In a noble cause ontending, Ve'er despairing the 'defeated,
 - God speed the right?
 Be their zeal in heaven recorded,
 With success on earth rewarded,
 II: God speed the right!:
- Be that pray'r again repeated,
 God speed the right!
 Ne'er despairing tho' defeated,
 God speed the right!
 Like the good and great in story,
 If they fail, they fail with glory.

Il: God speed the right! : !!

- 3 Patient, firm, and persevering, God speed the right! Ne'er the event our danger fearing.
- God speed the right!
 Pains, nor toils, nor trials heeding,
 And in heav'ns own time succeeding,
 Ii: God speed the right!;
- Still their onward course pursuing, God speed the right! Every foe at length subduing,
- God speed the right! Truth thy cause, whate'er delay it, There's no power on earth can stay it, ii: God speed the right!: ii

THE BATTLE-CRY OF TEMPERANCE.

3 We are springing to the call, the young, the old, and all shoung the buttle-cry of Temperance;
And we'll built decled from the parlor, shop, and hall, Shouting the buttle cry of Temperance. Cho.

4 We will ruise the fallen up, and we'll make them soher men, Shouting the battle-cry of Temperance.
Till the hills in 1 villeys ring, this Temperance song we'll sing, Shouting the battle-cry of Temperance. Cho.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF GOOD TEMPLARS.

OPENING ODE No. 2.

1 We are gathered for the conflict with earnest hearts and true, Shouting the battle-cry of Temperance, The world will bless our progress in the work we have to do; Shouting the battle-cry of Temperance. Cold water forever, hurrah! then, hurrah! Down with the wine-glass-up with our star . As we gather for a right cause, with carnest hearts and true. Shouting the battle-cry of Temperance.

2. Tune-"OLD HUNDRED.

1 Now bound by honor's sacred laws, Be faithful to our holy cause; Let truth preserve each member's fame, Nor curses blast our honored name. 2 Then welcome to our Unionhood, A cheerful welcome to the good, Long live our Order's great renown, And happiness each member crown.

3 Stand firm in truth, while life shall last, Nor let the blight fall on thy way; Our hopes, may treason never blast, Our trust, no Judas e'er betray.

Tune-America, page 119.

Long live our temple bright, Offspring of truth and light, Sent from above: Loug may our Brother's stand, And Sisters - glorious band— Strong pillars in our land, Our pride and love!

Tune-Lift your heads, the day is breaking.

To our noble cause forever,
Be a steady beacon light;
Let no deed or word e'er sever
Those who gather here to-night.

Firm in principles of Temperance
Turn the wive king from his throne.
Keeping always in remembrance,
God, great God, is King alone.

SPARKLING AND BRIGHT.

1 Whatever station we may fill.
In this exalted band,
Our plighted duties we shall still,
Achieve with heart and hand.

And evermore, through good and ill By one another stand, What ever station we may fill, In this exalted band. 2 Whatever station we may hold, Among the sons of earth— If high in houor, rich in gold. Or humble from our bath—

In nirtur only we behold,

The standard of our worth,
Whatever station we may hold
Amongst the sons of earth.

THE TEMPERANCE BANNER. p. 122.
Tune. The Morning light is breaking.

I Unfurl the Temp'rance Banner, And fling it to the breeze, And let the glad hesanna Sweep over land and seas; To God be all the glory

For what we now behold—

() let the cheering story
ln every car be told.

The drunkard shall not perish
In Alcohol's dire chain,
But wife and children cherish
Within his home again;
And sobered men, repenting,
Will how at Jesos' feet,
Their thankful hearts relenting
Before the mercy seat.

3 A new-waked zeal is burning
In this and every land,
And thousands now are turning
To join our tenn rance band;
The light of truth is shining
In many a darkened soul;
Ete long its rays combining
Will blaze from pole to pole.

4 Soon will a brighter morrow.
Succeed this pleasant day,
When drink and sin and sorrow
Shall fly far, far away;
Then let us swell the chorus,
And sweeter anthems raise
While angels hending o'er us,
Shall join in holy praise.

TEMPERANCE HYMN.

TUNE. Missionary Hymn.

1 From brightest crystal fountain That flows in beauty free By shady hill and mountain Fill high the cup for me! Sing of the spatkling waters Sing of the cooling spring— Let Freedom's sons and daughters Their joyous tribute bring.

2 This was the pledge in Eden,
Ere sorrow's notes were heard;
Ere our first mother heeding
The subtle serpent's word—
Forgetting her Creator,
Plunged all her race in wee,
And caused o'er beauteous Nature
The seeds of death to grow.

3. From many a happy awelling

Late misery's dark ahode,

The joyous peal is swelling—
The hymn of praise to God,
Glad sougs are now ascending
From many a thankful heart;
Hope, Joy, and Peace are blending
And each their aid impart.
We'll join the tuneful chorus
And raise our song on high!

The cheering view before us
Delights the raptured eye;
The glorious cause is gaining
New strength from day to day,
The drunkard hest is waning
Before cold water's away.

THE TEMPERANCE SHIP.

Tune. Shining Shore.

1 The temperance ship is sailing on,
In bright and sterny weather,
The great, and good, the young and old,
Are sailing in together.
The drunkards bark is ne'er secure,

Life's stormy ocean crossing,

For many sink to rise no more, When angry waves are tossing

2 The temperance ship is sailing on.
And friends are kindly greeting,
Husbands and wives, and children too,
O what a joyful meeting!

3 The temperages ship is sailing on,
A faithful hand is steering,
And safely guides the trusty ship,
No fee or danger fearing.

4 The temperance ship is sailing on, And banners now are waving; Long may it sail triumphantly, The foaming billows braving.

THE VICTORY'S NEAR.

Tune. Evergreen Shore.

1 We are fighting the battle of right against wrong, Of Reason 'gainst folly and sin; Though our foes seem to triumph, it is not for long, For truth must assuredly win.

CHORUS. Then let the enemy sneer, It never will cause us to fear

We will earnestly pray, and labor each day;
We know that the victory's near.

2 Let them say we are weak and can never succeed; Wall tell them we shall if we try;

For the cause of humanity daily we plead, And never will cease tall we die.—Cho.

3 When our country is free from her bondage and shame,

O then our reward we shall see; In that day we can truthfully, joyfully elaim Her title "The happy and free.—Cho.

4 Come and help, every one; you can all take a part, The noble, the wealthy the poor; There is work for the willing, benevolent heart,

This glerious time to insure. - Cho.

WELCOME TO DUR MEETING.

TUNE. Saviour like a Shepherd. p. 118.

1 Welcome to our festive meeting,
Welcome to our happy throng;
To beguite the monents fleeting,
Lond we raise our cheeful song.
Welcome! welcome! welcome! welcome!
Welcome to our happy throng.

2 Welcome all, our cause invites you, Onward onward. Temperance cries; Join us, Jesus' love invites you, Join us, and Intemperance dies. Welcome! welcome! welcome! Welcome to our happy throng.

DRUNKARDS ARE DYING, TUNE. Hamburg.

1 Drunkards are dying day by day, Thousands on thousands pass away; C. Christians to the rescue fly, And seek to save them ere they die.

2 Wealth, labour, talents freely give, That those now perishing may live; What hath your Saviour done for you; And what for them will ye not do?

8 O, Spirit of the Lord. go forth, Call in the south, awake the north; In every clime, from sun to sun, May drunkards to Thy fold be won.

DIVINE PRESENCE IMPLORED.

TUNE. Ortonville.

1 Great God, thy presence we implore
While we together meet;
'reverence would we humbly bow
'hy gracious sear.

ad temperance prevail snout our favored land.

And many a numerous host come forth To join our growing band.

3 Let young and old, let rich and poor Their energies unite, Until all people, climes and tongues, In temperance delight.

THE PRODIGAL INVITED. TUNE. Pleyel's Hymn. p. 119.

Brother, hast thou wandered far
From thy Father's, happy home,
With thyself and God at war?
Turn thee, brother; homeward come.
Hast thou wasted all the powers

God for noble uses gave?
Squandered life's most golden hours?
Turn thee, brother; God can save.

3 He can heal the deepest wound, He thy gentlest prayer can hear; Seek him, for he may he found; Call upou him; he is near.

THE COLD WATER ARMY TUNE. Auld Lang Syne. p. 120.

With banner and with badge we come,
An army true and strong;
To fight against the hosts of ram,
And this shall be our song.
We love the clear cold water springs,
Supplied by gentle showers;
We feel the strength cold water brings,
The victory is ours.

2 "Cold Water Army" is our name, O, may we faithful be, And so in truth and justice claim The blessings of the free, 3 Though others love their Rum and Wine,
And drink till they are mad;
To water we will still incline,
To make us strong and glad.

4 I pledge to thee this hand of mine In faith and friendship strong; Aud, fellow soldiers, we will join The chorus of our song.

DIVINE AID IMPLORED.

Tune. Rockingham. p. 124. Great God, whose hand outpours the rills And springs that burst from all the hills, At whose command the rock was riven, Who send'st on all, thy rain from heaven—

We bless thee for the crystal draught By sinless man in Eden quaffed; Type of that fount whose streams above, Flood endless worlds with life and love!

3 Help us to heed thy word divine, And look not on the crimson wine, To fear and flee th' accursed thing As serpent's bite or adder's sting.

4 Stay thou, O Lord! the tide of death! Rebuke the demon's blusting breath! And speed, oh! speed, on every shore, The day when strong drink slays no more;

PARTING HYMN. Tune. Martin.

1 For a season called to part,
Let us now ourselves commend
To the gracious eye and heart
Of our ever-present Friend.

2 Jesus, hear our humble prayer; Tender Shepherd of Thy sheep, Let Thy mercy and Thy care All our souls in safety keep.
